Salary: $51,621.60 - $86,803.20
Announcement Date: March 7, 2018
Revised Date: October 3, 2018

JOB INFORMATION

The ALDOT Enterprise Information Analyst, Senior is a permanent, full-time position with the Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT). Positions are located throughout the state. This is highly responsible, technical work with the Department of Transportation in the capture, storage, analyzation, documentation, distribution, and display of complex transportation enterprise geographically referenced information from a variety of sources.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited* four-year college or university in Civil Engineering, Geomatics, Geographic Information Systems, Geography or a related geospatial field.
- Two (2) years of experience performing enterprise geographic information system (eGIS) activities.
- For the promotional register, current, permanent status with ALDOT as an ALDOT Enterprise Information Analyst, Geographic Information Systems Specialist, Cartography Manager, Transportation Technologist, Senior, or Civil Engineering Graduate.

NOTES

- Your application must contain enough information to fully satisfy the above qualifications or it will not be accepted. For example, your experience must contain detailed information regarding your eGIS activities.
- Qualifying experience in eGIS activities above the minimum will substitute for the required four-year degree on a year-for-year basis.

EXAMINATION

- Open-Competitive to all applicants and Promotional to current ALDOT employees in the classifications listed above.
- An evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on the application will comprise 100% of the final score for the open competitive register and 95% of the applicant's final score for the promotional register. The remaining 5% for the promotional register will be based on the average of the applicant's service ratings for the last three years.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply by mail or by fax. Applications will be accepted until further notice. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

Veteran's credits are NOT allowed on promotional examinations.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in State service for a period of five years and, if the person is an officer or employee of the State, will forfeit his or her office or position.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

State of Alabama Personnel Department Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job, as well as Bachelor's, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from the schools accredited by any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:
 - Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
 - Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE))
 - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
 - Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
 - New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
 - Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)
2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above listed regional accreditation associations may be accepted if a *regionally accredited school considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the above listed accreditation associations.
